

Assam Governor Shri Acharya holds meeting with Raj Bhavan officials

Asks them to work as a team to strengthen Raj Bhavan as a facilitator of state's development

Guwahati, August 7: Assam Governor Shri Lakshman Prasad Acharya today held an interactive meeting with the officers and staff of Raj Bhavan in the conference hall where he called upon the Raj Bhavan officials to work as a team to strengthen Raj Bhavan as the facilitator of overall development of the state.

Chairing the meeting, Shri Acharya said that since Governor is the constitutional head of state, all sections of the people across the state expect some impactful and positive services from him. He, therefore, asked the officials of the Raj Bhavan to put in their collective and dedicated efforts to promote Raj Bhavan as a catalyst of change and development. The Governor further said that "cooperation and dedication" are keys to uplift Assam in all socio-economic and academic indicators, which according to him can also contribute to country's progress.

The Governor also said that since effective implementation of the welfare schemes of the Central and State governments are important for the development of all parts of the state, he stressed on extending Raj Bhavan's service to address any issue towards successful execution of the schemes. He said that widespread awareness among the public are also vital for the government schemes to see their successful and logical conclusion, which he believes can also propel Assam to the forefront of development.

First Lady of Assam, Smt. Kumud Devi, Commissioner and Secretary to the Governor, SS Meenakshi Sundaram, Secretary of the Chancellor's Secretariat, Kabita Deka, and all other officials were present at the meeting.
