

Governor visits temple on New Year Day

Offers prayers for all sections of the society

Guwahati, January 1: Beginning the new year on an auspicious note, Assam Governor Shri Lakshman Prasad Acharya, accompanied by First Lady of Assam, Smt. Kumud Devi, visited the Hanuman temple and Shiv temple at Uzanbazar here today.

During his visit, the Governor offered his prayers and sought blessings for the welfare and prosperity of all sections of society. He also expressed his desire for the new year to bring happiness and prosperity to all.

The Governor's visit to the temples on New Year's Day is a testament to the significance of spiritual values, which according to him would reinforce the importance of faith and unity in the diverse society.

PRO

1/01/2025