

Assam Governor interacts with IPS probationers; asks them to be role model for others

Guwahati, November 13: Assam Governor Shri Lakshman Prasad Acharya interacted with 10 IPS probationers of the 76th RR (2024 Batch) Assam-Meghalaya cadre at Raj Bhavan today. He asked the probationers to become role models for others.

Governor Shri Acharya asked the probationers to work responsibly, recognizing the high expectations placed on them. The Governor asked them to be committed to their work and sport polite behavior towards all individuals who interact with them. He said that it is a dream for many to be an IPS officer and when they have become one, they should carry out their responsibilities diligently.

The Governor also said that since law and order of the society depends on the police officers, they should be very sensible and diligent in carrying out their duties.

Governor Shri Acharya also expressed his expectations from the officers, encouraging them to work sincerely and contribute to the progress of the society.
