

Assam Governor visits Blueberry Industry on the occasion of Viswakarma Puja

Offers prayers to the God of engineers and architects

Guwahati, September 17: On the occasion of Viswakarma Puja, Assam Governor Gulab Chand Kataria visited the Blueberry Industry at Chandrapur and offered his puja to the God of Engineers.

He also visited the industry premises and had a look at the facilities put in place for industry which is engaged in dairy farming. The Governor hailed the efforts of the proprietor of the industry for his role in the development of dairy farming in the area. He said that there is immense scope for the development of the dairy sector in the state which can create employment avenues besides strengthening the local economy. The Governor moreover said that the dairy industry has the potential to strengthen the foundation of Atmanirbhar Assam and it is playing its role for the state's self-reliance. Therefore, more and more entrepreneurs and SHGs should be encouraged to take up dairy farming. The Governor also planted a sapling in the premises of the industry.

Principal Secretary to the Govt. of Assam, Animal Husbandry & Veterinary Department Manish Thakur, Secretary Industries, Commerce & PE Department, Dr. S. Lakshmanan and few other senior officers and dignitaries were present on the occasion.

PRO
17.9.2023