

Assam Governor mourns demise of Deven Dutta

Guwahati, August 18: Assam Governor Gulab Chand Kataria mourns the demise of noted educationist and former vice-principal of Cotton University, Deven Dutta who breathed his last today.

In a statement here today, Shri Katara said, “I am deeply saddened to know the death of Deven Dutta ”. As an academician he was par excellence and contributed immensely to the growth of education in Assam. He was also a good human being and apart from taking crucial role in stimulating intellectually imbued minds of the state, he helped his students to become virtuous human beings. His departure is a great loss to the state and country.

He expressed his profound condolences to the bereaved family members and prayed to the Almighty for eternal peace of the departed soul.
