

Governor dedicates meditation hall 'Pyramid' of Prajapita Bhamakumaris
Guwahati, March 2: In a significant move in the promotion of spiritual well-being in the region, Assam Governor Shri Lakshman Prasad Acharya inaugurated a meditation hall named 'Pyramid' of Prajapita Bhamakumaris at Phulung in North Guwahati today.

Speaking at the spiritual event organized by Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya, Governor Shri Acharya praised the Brahma Kumaris as an institution that goes beyond spiritual awakening to uplift moral values, foster social service, promote scientific education, and raise awareness for the betterment of society. He expressed his deep admiration for the selfless service, dedication, and devotion exhibited by the members of the Brahma Kumaris, adding, "I bow to all the dedicated members of this institution who are working tirelessly for the welfare of humanity."

Governor Shri Acharya also spoke on the importance of meditation, stating that it is not about detaching oneself from the material world but about creating a deeper connection with oneself. "Yoga and meditation are the two pillars that bring balance to human life. Yoga is incomplete without meditation," he said. He encouraged everyone to integrate these practices into their daily lives for inner peace and self-awareness.

Reflecting on India's rich spiritual heritage, Shri Acharya noted that the country has been a beacon of spiritual awakening for millennia. "India's spiritual tradition has illuminated the path of yoga, meditation, Vedanta, and devotion for the world," he remarked.

Quoting Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's vision of India as a global leader in spiritual and cultural values, Shri Acharya said, "Under Prime Minister Modi's leadership, India's Sanatan culture, rooted in truth, compassion, and universal brotherhood, is enlightening the entire world," he added.

The Governor also paid his heartfelt tribute to Rajyogini Brahma Kumari Sheela Behen, whose lifelong spiritual service in Assam, especially in the Northeast, has touched many lives.

Rajyogini Brahma Kumari Rukmani Behen, In-charge of Guwahati Sub-zone, Rajyogini Brahma Kumari Jonali Behen, Zonal Coordinator of the Youth Wing, Gujarat, Rajyogini Brahma Kumari Jagriti Behen, In-charge of Brahma Kumaris, New Guwahati Center, Rajyogini Brahma Kumari Moon Behen along with a host of other dignitaries were present on the occasion.
