Governor of Assam's Pratibha Pratsahan Yojana is a means to realize dreams of youth: Shri Acharya

Guwahati, September 27: Giving Assam Governor Shri Lakshman Prasad Acharya's initiative for civil service aspirants a final touch, Raj Bhavan Assam today signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Paavan Chintan Dhara Ashram in presence of the Governor at a function held at Assam Bhawan, New Delhi.

It may be noted that Commissioner and Secretary to the Governor of Assam, S.S. Meenakshi Sundaram and Dr. Kavita Asthana, Secretary signed the MoU on behalf of Raj Bhavan, Assam and Pawan Chintan Dhara Ashram respectively. The MoU, which is a part of Governor of Assam's Pratibha Protsahan Yojana 2024-25, is a way forward towards implementing and taking the initiative to its rightful and logical conclusion.

Sharing his vision on the occasion, Governor Shri Acharya said that Assam like its natural resources is very rich in its human resources. The youth of the state are very competent and given the right platform they will excel and bring laurels to the state. Keeping this vision in mind and giving youth the right platform to excel, Raj Bhavan Assam formulated the scheme namely Governor Assam's Pratibha Pratsahan Yojana. The Governor said that under the scheme, the promising youth of Assam will be provided right kind of guidance and assistance for coaching for UPSC civil service examinations free of cost.

The Governor further said, "This initiative will not only empower the capabilities of our candidates but also assist them in realizing their dreams". Through this scheme, the talented youth of Assam will receive support in building their bright futures, and it will be a significant contribution to the development of the state, the Governor exhorted adding he expressed hope that the initiative will serve as a source of inspiration for the youth and help them achieve the highest level of success in life.
