

Assam Governor felicitates Lovlina Borgohain

Guwahati, March 31: Assam Governor Gulab Chand Kataria along with the First Lady of Assam Anita Kataria felicitated ace boxer Lovlina Borgohain, at Raj Bhavan today. It may be noted that boxer Lovlina recently won the gold medal in Boxing World Championship held in New Delhi.

The Governor said, “Her exceptional talent and unwavering dedication have propelled her to clinch the gold medal in the IBA Women’s Boxing World Championships 2023, bringing immense pride and honor to our state and nation. May her outstanding achievements continue to inspire budding athletes to strive for excellence and bring further accolades to our country.”

Kataria also felicitated her parents who accompanied her to the Raj Bhavan. The officers and staff of Raj Bhavan were also present at the felicitation programme.
